

FAIR ACCESS TO ALLIED HEALTH FOR ALL

Help stop the suffering
and make your vote count

ahpa.com.au/electioncampaign

ELECTION REPORT CARD

AHPA surveyed independent candidates regarding their commitments to allied health in the upcoming election.

A report card detailing responses from political parties is also available on our election webpage.

ABOUT THIS REPORT CARD

Responses are given a score out of ten. Those who have not responded are listed below.

Independent Candidate	Score	Details	What they said...
Allegra Spender (Wentworth)	★★★★★☆☆☆☆☆	Didn't answer survey but will work with allied health if elected.	'We need an affordable and accessible health system that integrates primary care, manages costs and embraces new technology to diagnose and manage illness, and to better coordinate services.'
Dr Sophie Scamps (Mackellar)	☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆	Didn't answer survey.
Janine Kitson (Bradfield Can Do Better)	★★★★★★★★★★★★	Answered survey in detail and demonstrated knowledge of allied health issues.	'Allied health professionals do critical work in supporting people experiencing disability, chronic illness and poor health. Allied health services need to be fully integrated into Australia's public health system. If Australia is to have a world class health service that cares for every Australia, then it needs to include allied health services.'  'We need to ensure rural, remote and other poorly serviced areas get better access to allied health through adequate funding models and a comprehensive support model such as that for rural GPs.'  'Allied health students and staff in rural and remote areas need more support for supervision and mentoring.'
Nicolette Boele (Voices of Bradfield)	★★★★★☆☆☆☆☆	Didn't answer survey but will work with allied health if elected.	'Nicolette's core emphasis on equality, inclusion and social cohesion means that she is, broadly speaking, supportive, and will appreciate becoming more informed about the details and complexities of the issues it addresses.'

FAIR ACCESS TO ALLIED HEALTH FOR ALL

Help stop the suffering
and make your vote count

ahpa.com.au/electioncampaign

ELECTION REPORT CARD

AHPA surveyed independent candidates regarding their commitments to allied health in the upcoming election.

A report card detailing responses from political parties is also available on our election webpage.

ABOUT THIS REPORT CARD

Responses are given a score out of ten. Those who have not responded are listed below.

Independent Candidate	Score	Details	What they said...
Dr Helen Haines (Voices 4 Indi)	★★★★★★★★★☆☆	Fully supported our asks.	'As a nurse, midwife, and rural health researcher, I have seen up close the problems we face attracting and retaining a strong allied health workforce in rural and regional Australia.' 'I am proud to have allied health specific commitments as part of my re-election platform.'
Claire Ferres Miles (Voices of Casey)	★★★★★★★☆☆☆☆	Answered survey in detail and demonstrated knowledge of allied health issues.	'Allied Health professionals play an important role in the health system and it is a detailed and complex area.' 'The Aged Care system is an important area of policy for me. I support the implementation of all recommendations of the Aged Care Royal Commission.'
Dr Sarah Russell (Voices for Mornington Peninsula Flinders)	★★★★★★★★★☆☆	Answered survey in some detail.	'Very important that rural, remote and disadvantaged areas have access to allied health services.' 'There needs to be a full range of allied health professions to all of us who access mental health services.'
Zoe Daniel (Voices of Goldstein)	★★★★★★★☆☆☆☆	Met with adviser.	Candidate is extremely sympathetic to allied health and keen to meet with AHPA if elected.

FAIR ACCESS TO ALLIED HEALTH FOR ALL

Help stop the suffering
and make your vote count

ahpa.com.au/electioncampaign

ELECTION REPORT CARD

AHPA surveyed independent candidates regarding their commitments to allied health in the upcoming election.

A report card detailing responses from political parties is also available on our election webpage.

ABOUT THIS REPORT CARD

Responses are given a score out of ten. Those who have not responded are listed below.

Independent Candidate	Score	Details	What they said...
Despi O'Connor (Flinders)	★★★★★★★★★☆☆	Didn't answer survey but responded to member queries and welcomed opportunity to meet.	Supports investment in clinical assessments by allied health professionals to determine funding and care needs for people in residential aged care and those ageing at home, and in residential aged care, mandating allied health care to be delivered by a range of allied health professionals.
Kylea Tink (Voices of North Sydney)	★★★★★★★★☆☆☆☆	Met with adviser.	Genuine interest in wanting to understand and work with allied health. Candidate has been engaging in discussions around improving aged care and mental health, and is supportive of the preventive health strategy.

** These independent candidates have been approached but have not responded: Zali Steggall (Voices of Warringah), Natalie Baini (Reid), Georgia Steele (Hughes Deserves Better), Linda Seymour (We Are Hughes), Jo Dyer (Voices of Boothby), Monique Ryan (Voices of Kooyong).